LONDON

Dating back to 1860, this delightful freehold home is set on Blithfield Street—one of Stratford Village's most coveted addresses. Perfect for buyers seeking to upgrade from an apartment, downsize from a larger property, or secure a charming pied-à-terre, this house offers flexible, well-proportioned accommodation.

The layout includes a bright and spacious open-plan living area, a separate modern kitchen, a handy cellar, three generous double bedrooms, and two bathrooms. Blithfield Street is lined with pastel-hued period homes and framed by cherry blossom trees, creating a tranquil village atmosphere.

Residents enjoy easy access to the independent boutiques and cafes of Stratford Road, with High Street Kensington and the green open spaces of Hyde Park just a short stroll away.
